Randy was born in Honolulu, Hawaii, graduating from the University of Portland with a bachelor's degree in engineering, Business Management & Philosophy. He played for his college golf team on scholarship for 3 years. After college he turned professional and played on various mini tours in Southern California and Canada. Randy has worked within the golfing industry as a Director of Golf, General Manager, and Teaching Professional/ Custom club fitter. His knowledge of the golf swing and his flexible style of teaching compliments each student's specific goals and physical abilities. Randy's approach to instruction is to S.U.R.F; Simplicity, Understanding, Retention, and most important, FUN. He believes that today's technology and training techniques help to speed up the learning process for the student, which makes it more enjoyable and easier to comprehend. Randy has been a Golf Channel Academy lead instructor for the past 3 years and has been featured live on the Golf Channel Morning Drive program and his numerous tips have been aired nationally on the Golf Channel. He has also been featured on Golf Life on Fox Sports and serving on the SCPGA Board of Directors chairing the Teaching and Coaching committee.
